Principal's message

The year 2023 is a year of celebrations as Tack Ching is commemorating its 100th anniversary. It is with great joy that we present to you our English musical production, The Sound of Music. This is one of the celebratory events that will showcase our students' talents in drama, dance and singing.

The Sound of Music is a timeless classic that reminds us to have faith in what we believe. This echoes the theme of Tack Ching's 100th Anniversary celebration: 'shine in God's Love; soar in faith and hope'. I always recall what Reverend Mother tells Maria when she seems lost about what lies ahead, 'keep perseverance, faith and the heart of thankfulness, all these virtues will guide you to find out the answers'.

To us, the journey of Maria is a learning journey for all of us, especially when facing adversity – it is through the numerous training, practice as well as rehearsal sessions that we discover our talents and creativity; that we learn to develop interest in our learning and that we unfold our potentials so that we can eventually shine and fly high in love, faith and hope.

I would like to take this opportunity to extend my sincere gratitude and appreciation to all the teachers, students and staff for their dedication and enthusiasm to bring the English musical production to life as a part of the anniversary celebrations and a glamorous platform to unleash such incredible potential.

Let us sit back to relax and enjoy the beautiful musical performance brought by the talents of Tack Ching girls.

Hui Yin Shan
Principal

Message from the Director

We are filled with gratitude and joy for the priceless opportunity to produce the English musical training programme during the Centenary of Tack Ching Girls' Secondary School.

I'd like to express my heartfelt gratitude to the core team tutors: Directors/Acting Coaches - Ms. Rosa Mui, Mr. Alton Lau, and Mr. Kenny Poon; Dancing Coaches - Ms. Nikki Ng and Ms. Annie Wong; Singing Coaches - Ms. Sky Liang, Ms. Yuki Kwan, and Mr. Hin Lo; Stage Manager - Mr. Pius Chu; and Setting Designer - Mr. Isaac Wong. With their professionalism and contribution, we produced the musical together with the excellent teachers, staff, and principals of Tack Ching.

We hope that the unique drama education experiences will shape the character strengths, mentality, and values of the young ladies, for these are the vital assets to support their growth and catch their dreams in their future endeavors. We also hope that you will recognize the effort made by the young ladies. Let's enjoy!

Message from the English Department

The school vision of providing an all-round education based on Catholic values is to empower our youngsters to be future leaders by cultivating different important values and developing their potential to the fullest. To uncover students' talents in English is our departmental vision. Apart from stimulating daily teaching, we make use of various captivating English activities to engage students by catering for their diverse learning needs and interests. One of these is the live performance of the classic English musical, The Sound of Music, performed by all Form 2 girls. They spent a vast amount of time and effort practicing acting, dancing, singing, directing and coordinating as a team, staying positive and persevering when demands and difficulties arose. The students were aware of the need and able to manage emotions and pressure in the face of challenges with a sense of purpose and motivation to go the extra mile.

Celebrating the upcoming 100th anniversary of Tack Ching Girls' Secondary School, we're grateful for your presence and support. Let's enjoy the show and above all, appreciate our young ladies' growth and grit in making a difference and standing out!

Synopsis

Maria always wants to be a nun since she was a little girl. When she becomes old enough, she discovers that being a nun isn't what she thinks – she is often in trouble and doing the wrong things. Seeing that Maria is not cutting it as a nun, the reverend mother decides that Maria should leave and take on a job as a governess at the nearby Von Trapp family in Salzburg to take care of the seven children of Captain Von Trapp, whose wife was dead years ago.

Captain Von Trapp is often away. He runs the family too strictly and causes his seven children to be underfed with love and joy. The children are unhappy and resentful of all the governesses and have managed to run each of them off one by one. When Maria arrives, she gives the children a taste of a more fulfilling and joyous life than they have ever known through music and outings. Soon, the children come to love Maria dearly. Because of Maria, Captain Von Trapp grows closer to his children and comes to understand the value and beauty of freedom that Maria has given them. Eventually, Captain Von Trapp and Maria find themselves falling in love. Will Maria choose to serve God wholeheartedly as a nun or marry Captain Von Trapp?
